The film revolves around four high school friends who graduated ten years ago from East Great Falls High School. Now in their late 20s, these friends are back home to bury their fifth friend from that graduating class, Tom McMillan (played by John Cho). At first, Jason's (played by Seann William Scott) plan was to stay one night and then leave. But as soon as he arrives, an old flame named Kelly (played by Alyson Hannigan) who is now married suddenly appears. They both decide to keep their past a secret from the rest of the group. However, they aren't the only ones keeping secrets. They soon stumble across Stifler (played by Chris Klein) who has been hiding a secret of his own. He comes out to a stunned audience and admits he is now a family man with a wife and child on the way. Tom, Jason and Ron (played by Chris Elliott) all question him and get into a huge fight. Meanwhile, the group also discovers that the high school where they went to school actually closed when they graduated. This leads them on a wild journey through time in order to uncover all of their former classmates' secrets before time runs out.

In the United States and Canada, American Reunion went into wide release on June 14, 2012. It ranked second behind Marvel's The Avengers in its opening gross of $1,090,146 domestically and $63,224,897 in foreign countries, bringing its worldwide total to $114,315,133. The film is the fifth-highest opening for a non-sequel R-rated comedy behind "Guess Who" ($12.6 million), "Anchorman 2: The Legend Continues" ($11.3 million) and "Ted" ($13.5 million). The film received mixed reviews from critics. On aggregate review site Rotten Tomatoes, the film has an approval rating of 50% based on 129 reviews with an average rating of 5.2/10. The website's critical consensus reads, "While "American Reunion" may not be completely unwatchable, it's disappointingly derivative and the reunion it brings the characters is underwhelming." On Metacritic, the film has a weighted average score of 53 out of 100 based on 29 critics, indicating "mixed or average reviews". TV Guide awarded the movie 2 out 4 stars.
